History Knowledge Organiser – local history - Arundel

Key Vocabulary

Word	Definition
Arundel	The name of our local largest town of significance
Civil war	a war within one country between different groups or areas of that country
Market	A place where people go to buy or sell things
Protestant	A form of Christian faith and practice
Catholic	A form of Christian religion where the Pope is the head of the church revolution	a very great change in something that causes many other things to change

What we have already learnt

- That castles were built on sites of strategic importance by the Normans after they invaded England and won the Battle of Hastings in 1066

Key Learning

- I know that Arundel began as a Saxon village.
- I know that the landscape of Arundel has changed over time.
- I know that a castle was built in the Norman times in 1067.
- I know that Arundel was an important market town.
- I know that Arundel was a centre of trade for our local area and had a port.
- I know that the civil war took place in 1642-1651
- I know that Arundel declined during the time after the civil war.

Until around 2500BC	c.2500BC-43AD	43AD-410	410-1066	1066-1485	1485-1693	1603-1714	1714-1837	1837-1901	1901-Today
Stone Age	Bronze & Iron Age	Romans	Anglo-Saxon	Medieval	Tudor	Stuart	Georgian	Victorian	Modern